A Time To Dance by Padma Venkatraman is a young adult verse book that doesn't loudly declare itself, but kind of whispers. As weird as that sounds, it makes sense when you read it. Venkatramana's book explores dance, growing up, and India. It's a book that does not feel over the top at all, but rather subdued in a calming kind of way.

A Time to Dance Quotes by Padma Venkatraman
Shiva's the god of dance and creator of universes, and a priest teaches Veda to "feel Shiva's feet moving" inside her chest, as her heartbeat. Years later, as a teen, she wins a Bharatanatyam dance competition and relishes the applause. Then a van accident leads to the amputation of her right leg below the knee.
