Courting Trouble

Courting Trouble By Lisa Scottoline CHAPTER 1. Anne Murphy barreled through the bustling lobby of the William Green Federal Courthouse, her long, auburn hair flying. She was about to do something crazy in court and couldn't wait to get upstairs. If she won, she'd be a hero. If she lost, she'd go to jail.

Courting Trouble - Lisa Scottoline

The main character in Courting Trouble is a tremendous I Love Lucy fan. This book has all the reality of an I Love Lucy plot. Most of the women in the book are Lucy-ish scatterbrains. Luckily, parts of it are almost as funny as Lucy, and that makes up for a lot.

Courting Trouble (Rosato & Associates, #7) by Lisa Scottoline

Courting Trouble is my favorite of Deeanne's three historical novels. The author created a dynamic, quirky, unique characterization in Essie. In fact, I can't recall a single "cardboard character" in this story. They were all expertly developed.

Courting Trouble is a very comical and somehow realistic read! I was totally absorbed into the life of Tilly, the main character. From writing on very real societal problems to bring in a dash of humour to describe raising a pre-teenager daughter, the author managed to grip my attention throughout the book!
