There are innumerable drawing styles to be studied and explored, each one conveying a different final product. Naturally, different types of illustration call upon different skills from the artist. Some are quite detailed and meticulous, requiring a lot of patience, while others work well when the artist is able to be loose and free with their strokes.

Men's Fashions. In the men's fashion field, 1949 saw the death of the exaggerated drape jacket, which hung loosely from the shoulders with hardly any indentation at the waist-line. "Drape" was a style which originated in England at the end of the 19th century and gave an illusion of broader shoulders and deeper chest.

The 1920s in Western fashion saw a modernization. For women, fashion had continued to change away from the extravagant and restrictive styles of the Victorian and Edwardian periods, and towards looser clothing which revealed more of the arms and legs, that had begun at least a decade prior with the rising of hemlines to the ankle and the movement from the S-bend corset to the columnar ...
