Jesus initially refuses her request by saying, "It is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs" (Matthew 15:26). Taken out of context, and especially in English, it's easy to mistake this for an insult. In the flow of the story, however, it's clear Jesus is creating a metaphor meant to explain the priorities of ...

Not Quite a Lady (Carsington Brothers #4) (32) "Make them right, yes," Lord Lithby said. But his eyes were red and all the light seemed to have gone out of him and he looked old, suddenly, though he was a man in his prime. "I think we'd best start by finding Pip," Darius said. He quickly explained the situation: the boy's disappearance, Morrell's revelations.
