Revelation, Four Views: A Parallel Commentary, edited by Steve Gregg. Nashville: Thomas Nelson, 1997, 528 pages. Don't confuse this with a book with a similar title edited by Marvin Pate, which I also recently reviewed. That book allowed the proponents of each of four different views to present an overall summary of their approach to the book of Revelation.

Revelation Four Views A Parallel Commentary Steve Gregg

That there are differing views on the interpretation of the apocalyptic writings in the book of Revelation is no secret. The plethora of views, however, can be distilled into essentially four main categories. These categories are: the historicist view, the preterist view, the futurist view, and the idealist view.

Gregg's 4 View Parallel Commentary was one of them. It is exquisite. It completely out classes Pate's book (Four Views on the Book of Revelation) and the Broadman Press book (Revelation: Three Viewpoints) Pate's book is MUCH MORE AFFORDABLE and it is the book that I recommended to my class, but only due to cost.
