I have a bottle of perfume—one that I love—that was a Mother's Day gift from awhile ago. I've used about a quarter of it. I'm not sure if I'm waiting for the queen to visit, an invitation to the presidential inauguration ball, or just some romantic date with my husband.

Blog | The Art of Simple

Simplicity is a God-given discipline that prunes the dead branches of waste that effectually deplete us of the energy, time, and provision with which God has blessed us. When we make the decision to stop pursuing more, we step in line with the Spirit and place our trust and faith in God rather than our own understanding.
