The Whisper, by Emma Clayton Two years ago, I reviewed The Roar , by Emma Clayton--a fine example of that rare thing, a solidly middle-grade science fiction/dystopia, that I recommended in particular to "boys who love video games that involve blowing up space ships, who also care about the environment."

Charlotte's Library: The Whisper, by Emma Clayton

Both books by Emma Clayton: THE ROAR and THE WHISPER are almost prophetic in their outlook for humanity. What is described in the books is the (imagined) result of the selfishness of humanity and what it is doing to our world.
